

Dear Educator,

We are thrilled to announce the lineup for the upcoming Adventure Series! For many of your students, the Adventure Series is their first time experiencing the magic of live theater. This year's three excellent shows are sure to spark their imaginations and create lasting memories. Each show has performances at 10:30 AM and 1:00 PM. We can't wait to share them with you!

Dinosaur Dimensions- Expedition, Tuesday, February 23, 2027

Prepare for a larger-than-life adventure that will leave your students in awe! Experience an elaborate "Jungle Laboratory," packed with vibrant colors, props, and prehistoric foliage, where science and imagination collide. This fast-paced, high-energy production features an 8-foot tall Dilophosaurus roaming loose, a massive 24-foot Brachiosaurus emerging from the wings, and five additional cutting-edge animatronic puppets. Complete with thrilling multimedia effects, live science experiments, and a robotic dinosaur that moves entirely on its own, it's a mind-blowing journey back in time. Don't miss the prehistoric event of the season!

The Girl Who Fell Through a Hole in Her Sweater, Thursday, March 4, 2027

The UW-Green Bay Theatre Department presents a witty adventure of a young girl named Noil who finds herself in a strange new place after she falls through her sweater one morning while getting ready for school. To return to her own existence she must accomplish three and a half magical tasks. Noil is clever and resourceful, and with some assistance from the narrator, Crumbs-In-Pocket, and a talking roach, she is well on her way to overcoming the bizarre characters of Lord Principal Plagueworthy, The Mirror, The Window, The Door and Itnose. The play takes place somewhere at the end of the hole in Noil's sweater and takes students on a journey that seems very similar to Alice's trip through Wonderland.

Cat Kid Comic Club, Monday, March 29, 2027

Cat Kid and Molly Pollywag have started an epic club to teach 21 rambunctious baby frogs how to make their own comics! Their fishy father, Flippy, is overjoyed that his kids will learn to unleash their creativity, but when the frogs' constant bickering and outrageous imaginations send their comics comically off the rails, Flippy flips out! Will the club survive? Will the frogs ever get along? And will creativity finally save the day? All will be answered in this madcap musical based on Dav Pilkey's irreverently hilarious book series.
